

Our Staff

Daphne Safrit, Interim Director, was the children's literature expert at Literary Bookpost for 6 years before becoming a stay at home mom to three wonderful daughters. She loves being able to work with children again since she joined the team at St Luke's.

BA Anthropology, UNC Charlotte

Laura Koontz, teacher, previously taught 1st and 2nd grades for ten years. She is now a stay at home mom to teenage boys. She has loved working at St. Luke's for over 9 years.

BA Elementary Ed, Elon College

Lynn Frick, teacher, has always worked with children from pediatrics to teaching. She has been a stay at home mom for many years with twin daughters, that are now in college. She enjoy working at St. Luke's TCS caring for the sweet children and watching them grow.

BA Business, Catawba College

Our Staff

Aida Garwood, teacher, is originally from La Sénia, Spain, and has resided in Salisbury for nearly a decade. Aida is fluent in English, Spanish, and Catalan, with proficiencies in French and Italian. She was previously employed as Children's Associate at the Rowan Public Library, and still works as a substitute and as host for biligual storytime. Aida is also an accomplished pianist and percussionist; and travelled Europe with the ensemble, Agrupació Musical Senienca. Aida is married to Daniel, and has a 2 year old daughter, Ellie.

Associate Degree, Audiovisual and Communications Systems

Heather Duncan is the Coordinator for Children's, Youth & Family Ministries at St. Luke's and is also a teacher for TCS.

Heather has Bachelor's Degrees in Literature and Creative Writing and is a self-taught artist with a passion for dressing up and inspiring others to be authentically themselves. She believes that one of the best ways to spread love is through art and volunteer work. Heather enjoys spending time with her family in the garden as well as exploring Savannah, GA